Stellant Systems Promotes Joe Dominiak to General Manager of the Folsom, CA Facility

TORRANCE, CA, January 24, 2023 — Stellant Systems, Inc. (Stellant) announced the promotion of Joseph (Joe) Dominiak to General Manager of the Folsom, CA facility.

In this role, Joe has responsibility for driving operational performance at the Folsom, CA site and reports to Steve Shpock, Chief Operating Officer (COO).

Joe has over 30 years in Program Management and Engineering leadership in the Aerospace & Defense Industry. He started his career in the organization in 2009 as a Program Manager at Stellant's Torrance, CA facility. In 2016 he transferred to the Folsom, CA site as Senior Director of Programs.

Joe received his B.S. in Electrical Engineering from Penn State University.

"I am very happy to welcome Joe Dominiak to Stellant's leadership team," said Steve Shpock, COO. "Folsom is an integral part of Stellant's growth strategy, and his extensive experience and industry knowledge makes him the sound choice to help achieve our company's growth plans."

"I'm delighted to have been selected as General Manager for our Folsom site," said Joe. "The Folsom team has demonstrated consistent dedication and excellence in supporting our customers and their missions while continuing to develop innovative products. I look forward to building upon this great work while also expanding our commercial and military market footprints."
